

Photographic Exhibition and Workshops

7th & 8th September, 2024

The Remington, Orange, NSW

Do you love taking photos but want to improve your knowledge and photographic skills? The Orange Photography Club invite you to join us for a weekend featuring presentations by experienced photographers, two Sunday photography workshops, an exhibition of prints by our presenters and a display of entries in the Western Districts Association of Camera Clubs Interclub Competition, critique of competition entries and a Q&A for attendees.

Our Presenters:

Grant Swinbourne - “Finding Your Voice in Photography” – Presentation (Landscape photographer & host of Landscape Photography World Podcast, based in Sydney, Australia)

www.grantswinbournephotography.com

Scott Stramyk - “Lighting, People and Movement” – Presentation & Workshop Leader (Australian travel and lifestyle photographer, educator and photography tour host)

www.scottstramyk.com

Don Munro – “What Judges Look For” – Presentation (Secretary, NSW Federation of Camera Clubs)

<https://fccnsw.myphotoclub.com.au>

Nigel Sethack- “Birds at Rest” – Workshop Leader (Experienced, award-winning bird photographer)

Register and purchase your ticket online using the QR Code below or go to:

<https://nswwest.myphotoclub.com.au> and follow the links.

You could also email the attached Registration Form.

Registrations close: 30th August, 2024

See full weekend programme overleaf.

Enquiries: Helmut Berndt 0484333825

Register & purchase
your tickets

For more information:

 <https://www.orangecameraclub.asn.au/>

 https://www.instagram.com/orange_photographyclub/

 <https://www.facebook.com/orangephotographyclub>

WEEKEND PROGRAMME & TICKET INFORMATION

Saturday 7th September 2024

Venue: The Remington, 1517 Forest Road Orange

9:30am – 11:00am – Competition print entries to be delivered to The Remington

12:00 midday – welcome and light lunch

12:30pm – “What Judges Look For” – Don Munro (NSW FCC)

1:15pm – “Finding Your Voice in Photography” – Grant Swinbourne (landscape photographer www.grantswinbournephotography.com)

2.30pm – Q&A Panel – Scott Stramyk (the competition judge and keynote speaker), Grant Swinbourne and Don Munro will host an interactive session to discuss the competition entries. All attendees are encouraged to participate, ask questions and learn from each other.

3:30pm – Afternoon tea

4:00pm – Overview of Sunday workshops

4:30pm – Finish. Attendees can relax at the Remington or take the opportunity to take some photographs at the reserves nearby before reconvening for dinner.

6:00pm – Dinner at The Remington – partners are welcome at an additional cost of $38.00

7:00pm – “Lighting, People and Movement” – Scott Stramyk (Australian photographer www.scottstramyk.com)

8:30pm – Western District Association of Camera Clubs competition winners announced

9:30pm – Close

Sunday 8th September 2024

8:00-10:00am – Workshop with Scott Stramyk at a local dance studio learning about photographing light and movement in a live demonstration with ballerinas. Bring your camera to participate.

or

8:00-10:00am – Workshop with Nigel Sethack at Spring Creek Reserve photographing the abundant birdlife. Entrance gate is accessed via the southern end of Lone Pine Avenue. Map will be provided. Bring your camera to participate.

Ticket Price:

Saturday $75 per person includes lunch, afternoon tea, dinner, presentations, Q&A and exhibitions.

Sunday workshops $25 per person

Additional tickets to attend the Saturday dinner are available at a cost of $38.00.

Please make a bank transfer to BSB: 802-129 ACC: 100107188, using your name (and club name if applicable) as a reference. No refunds will be given after 30 August 2024.